

Source 1

Source Information: Susan P. Lester to Harry S. Truman, December 6, 1947 with reply from Matthew J. Connelly, Truman's Secretary

LIBRARY
Papers of Harry S. Truman
OFFICIAL FILE

December 13, 1947

1290-B
Mural

My dear Mrs. Lester:

Your letter of December sixth to the President in the interest of Mr. William J. Donovan has been received. For your information, I wish to advise you that there has been established a Central Intelligence Agency, provided for in the National Security Act of 1947. The President has appointed Rear Admiral Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter as Director of this Agency.

X1101

X1290-B
Embassments
Donovan

Very sincerely yours,

MATTHEW J. CONNELLY
Secretary to the President

Mrs. M. M. Lester,
The Roosevelt, X
Waco,
Texas.

B

DDB ✓