Dear Mr. Porter:

Appreciate your letter of March Thirty-first, and I am pleased, of course, to have your views regarding the War Relocation Authority.

Sincerely yours,

Harry S. Truman

United States Senator Trueman,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Senator;

Do you listen to Fulton Lewis, Jr., in his broadcasts about the Jap Relocation Authority and its 55,000,000.00 dollar appropriation and no Japs located. It seems to me that we need some new Congressman and Senators if they get that kind of results for our money. I suggest that the officers of the relocation service be drafted at once.
