Mr. President:

I ask you most earnestly to veto the McCarran Immigration and Naturalization Bill.

I am a recently naturalized U.S. citizen myself. On basis of this measure, since communist Hungary would never take me back, I can be put in jail for life for a misdemeanor. With such a grave threat hanging over my future existence in this country, how can I ever feel free?

Therefore I ask you again perhaps not only to veto the bill, but also to come before the television and radio audiences of the nation, to speak up against this legislative club, <sup>(which is)</sup> to be held over the heads of 8 million naturalized Americans.

Respectfully yours

Thomas C. Breitner
