

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 20, 1952

MEMORANDUM:

There have been close to 11,000 telegrams, letters and cards received urging the President to veto the so-called McCarran Immigration Bill. Approximately 500 pieces of correspondence have been received in support of the Bill.

A great many of those in support of the Bill are from Japanese groups, and a great many of those in opposition to the Bill are from Jewish groups.

W. J. H.
WILLIAM J. HOPKINS