Honorable James A. Farley, Chairman
Democratic National Committee
National Press Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Farley:

I am writing this letter in the interest of Miss Alice Braithwaite of Joplin, Missouri, who wishes to obtain a position in one of the Government Departments in Washington.

Miss Braithwaite is thoroughly experienced in bookkeeping and accounting as well as clerical work. Her Democracy is unquestioned, and I will appreciate any consideration shown her.

Sincerely yours,

Harry S. Truman

Farley, 1/20/35

Honorable Harry S. Truman,
Senator from Missouri,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Truman:

This will introduce to you Miss Alice Braithwaite of Joplin, the daughter of a life long Democrat as well as the daughter of a life long friend of my fathers.

Miss Braithwaite informs me she is going to Washington and if fortunate enough to secure a position she will remain there. I would appreciate any assistance you might render her and I feel certain she would not accept a position she could not very ably fill.

Mr. Braithwaite has been active in Democratic politics in the Third Legislative District of Jasper County for some time and I have advised Miss Braithwaite it would be proper for her to secure a letter from Grover James, our County Chairman, who lives in Joplin.

Thanking you any favors you might show Miss Braithwaite, I remain

Yours very truly,

George I. Haworth

Honorable Harry S. Truman,
United States Senator,
Washington, D. C.

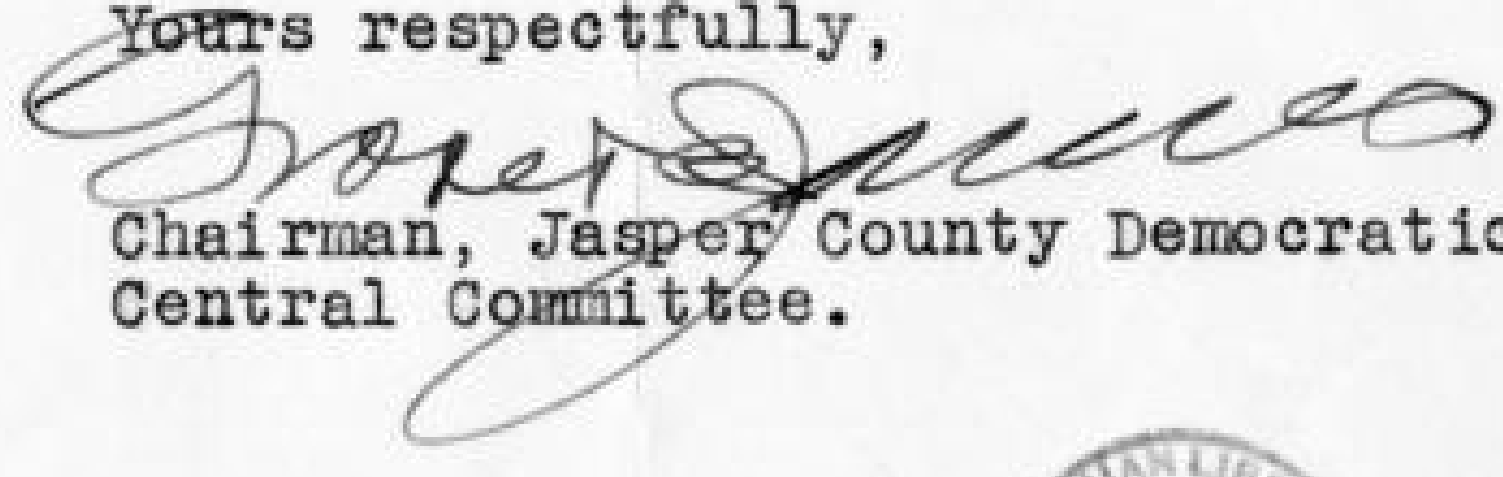

My dear Senator Truman:

Miss Alice Braithwaite, 2105 Wall Street, Joplin, Missouri, will call on you in a few days and present this letter. Miss Braithwaite would appreciate your assistance in obtaining a clerical position for her in Washington. She is experienced in bookkeeping and accounting, but is not interested in stenography. Miss Braithwaite's father is our County Auditor, and I am sure from her experience with him she has become quite proficient in clerical work. They are all democrats and would appreciate any assistance you would give her.

I want to assure you that I would personally appreciate any courtesies you may extend to Miss Braithwaite.

Thanking you, and with kindest personal regards, I am

Yours respectfully,

Chairman, Jasper County Democratic
Central Committee.
