President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs —

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petitions all over the country, I beg of you to recognize the gravity of our situation. The war is not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been war.

The world has not yet rebuilt the values of the last 30 years past. Must we spend more time to re-building values that should never have been made rules.

Let us talk before we fight. Let us accommodate before we are embroiled.

Respectfully yours,

Carolyn M. Agnew
