President Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs:

In the name of all those who are signing the peace petition all over the country, I beg of you to reconsider this matter of arms, munitions, or any other aid to Korea. The war they are fighting is a civil war, not an international one. They are fighting for unity in a country where there has been war.

The world has yet to rebuild the ruins of the last 25 years past. Must we spend more time to rebuilding ruins that should never have been made in the first place?

Let us talk before we fight. Let us not make before we are begged.

Respectfully yours,

Carolyn A. Agnew
